

Pasture Plant Identification Classes

- Do you graze cattle, sheep, horses, and/or maybe goats?
- Is baling hay a part of your operation?
- Do you know what type of forages your animals use?
- Are there any poisonous plants growing in your pasture?
- Can you identify the different type of plants growing in your area?
- Do you want to spray to control unwanted plants?

We can help!

How grassland plants are classified	Woody type plants
Characteristics of:	How location and soil type affect where plants grow
Cool season grasses	What plant characteristics are needed to identify plants
Warm season grasses	Plant Identification
Cool season legumes	Importance of grassland composition
Warm season legumes	How do you determine grassland composition
Forbs	Making grasslands viable for livestock & wildlife
Weed Control	What factors effect overall forage quality

Where: University of Missouri Texas County Extension, 114 West Main, Houston

When: September 3rd and 18th, 6:30 to 9:30

Cost: $20/ person or couple (funds cover materials and refreshments)

Sign-up: To register or for more details contact Texas County Extension, 417-967-4545