Local Delta Kappa Gamma chapter holds April Meeting

The Gamma Phi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met Saturday, April 6 at the Cabool Methodist Church.

President Suzette Litwiller opened the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance. Highlights from the business meeting were reports from the secretary and treasurer, plus a reminder to pay dues. The Missouri State Convention will be in Columbia, Mo. April 25-26, 2025. Prospective member forms need to be submitted for the July planning meeting in Willow Springs.

The 2024-26 biennium officers were installed by Janice Lowe. They are Faye Wiersema, president; Wilda McNiell, first vice-president; Jeannie Beltz, second vice-president; Janice Lowe, recording secretary; Gina Clinkingbear, corresponding secretary; and Mary Jane Lybyer, treasurer.

After the business meeting, Jeannie Beltz delivered the devotion of how we can learn from the "lilies of the field" relating how the lily's attributes mirrored Christian's lives. Sharon Petrus presented the speaker, Shannon VonAllmen, who is the executive director for "Birthday Blessings". This non-profit's home base is in West Plains, but also has offices in Hannibal, Sedalia, Troy, and Warsaw.

Birthday Blessings serve foster kids who come from backgrounds of poverty, neglect and abuse. They serve every child referred to them by advocacy partners such as CASA or Children's Division. Shannon brought examples of items that they give to the foster children such as backpacks, books, art supplies, games and cuddly stuffed animals. There are also cake mixes, confetti icing, birthday hats and candy on the meal tables as decoration and for donation. This organization also gifts teens in residential facilities with care packages. A basket of household items are given to those who are 18 and are going on to independent living. The Willow Springs members were hostesses for this meeting.

Gamma Phi Chapter contributes books to "Born To Read" baskets that are given to new mothers by the Texas County Health Department. A special thank you goes to LeEtta East for supplying many books for this meeting. The delicious meal was served by the Eunice Whittaker Circle from the Cabool Methodist Church.
