Trooper's killer set for execution Oct. 14 for 2025 crime

A man who killed a Missouri State Highway Patrol officer in Troop G is set to be executed at 6 p.m. Oct. 14, barring a last-minute delay.

The Missouri Supreme Court set the execution date for Lance Shockley, 48, from Van Buren, who was convicted of the murder in 2005.

Shockley had sought to appeal to the federal courts, but the U.S. Supreme Court declined to review his case on March 31, 2025. That same day, the Missouri Supreme Court filed a motion to schedule Shockley's execution date.

According to the patrol, Shockley was convicted for the murder of Sgt. Carl Dewayne Graham, who was found dead after being ambushed and shot near Van Buren on March 20, 2005.

Just before his death, Graham was investigating a fatal crash involving Shockley, where the driver fled the scene. Shockley was later charged with felony leaving the scene of an accident that resulted in a passenger's death.

In 2009, a Carter County judge sentenced Shockley to the death penalty after a jury found him guilty of first-degree murder and armed criminal action.

Shockley tried to appeal his sentence, but the Missouri Supreme Court upheld the conviction on Aug. 13, 2013. He also sought post-conviction relief, but that motion was denied by a judge in 2017 and the Missouri Supreme Court in 2019.

Shockley is incarcerated in the Potosi Correctional Center.

Middle school and elementary school races were 2,414 meters long.

A trio of HMS 8th-graders took the first three spots in a field of 92 in the middle school boys race, as Choate won with a time of 8:41.14, Charlie Benoist was second at 8:52.99 and Liam Stickle came in third at 9:16.21. The Tigers topped the team standings, as 7th-grader Rocky Gilbert placed seventh and 7th-grader Dominic Stice finished 25th.

Copley once again finished far ahead of the rest of the field in the middle school girls race, posting a time of 9:22.02 while Liberty 6th-grader Kaylee Francis came in second in the field of 64 at 11:26.80. HMS 7th-grader Hayden

"It was a very good day for our Tigers," said head coach Justin Brown. "The elementary kids are looking stronger and the middle school boys had another dominating performance. Myles was strong leading the middle school girls and Hayden and Adrian all improved their times. The varsity girls had a hard-fought battle with Gainesville, with Lyla leading the way. Our varsity boys still have a lot of room for improvement with the second half of the season coming up, so hopefully we can get things turned around and heading in the right direction."

Houston cross country athletes will run again on Thursday of this week (Oct. 9) at Licking. The South Central Association conference championships meet is set for Monday (Oct. 13) at Willow Springs.
